

National expert consensus on home-administered oncologic therapies in Spain

Eulalia Villegas<sup>1</sup>, María Arruñada<sup>2</sup>, Miguel Ángel Casado<sup>2</sup>, Sonia González<sup>3,4,5</sup>, María Estela Moreno-Martínez<sup>6</sup>, María Ángeles Peñuelas<sup>7</sup>, Ana Maria Torres<sup>1</sup>, Yanik Sierra<sup>8</sup> and Miguel Angel Seguí<sup>9,10*</sup>

DEVELOP A MULTIDISCIPLINARY CONSENSUS REGARDING THE ESSENTIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF A HOME ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM FOR CANCER THERAPIES IN SPAIN

23 RECOMMENDATIONS

for the implementation of home administration of cancer therapies

23 recommendations covering three areas:

Selection of patients and medications

Logistics management and home visit circuit

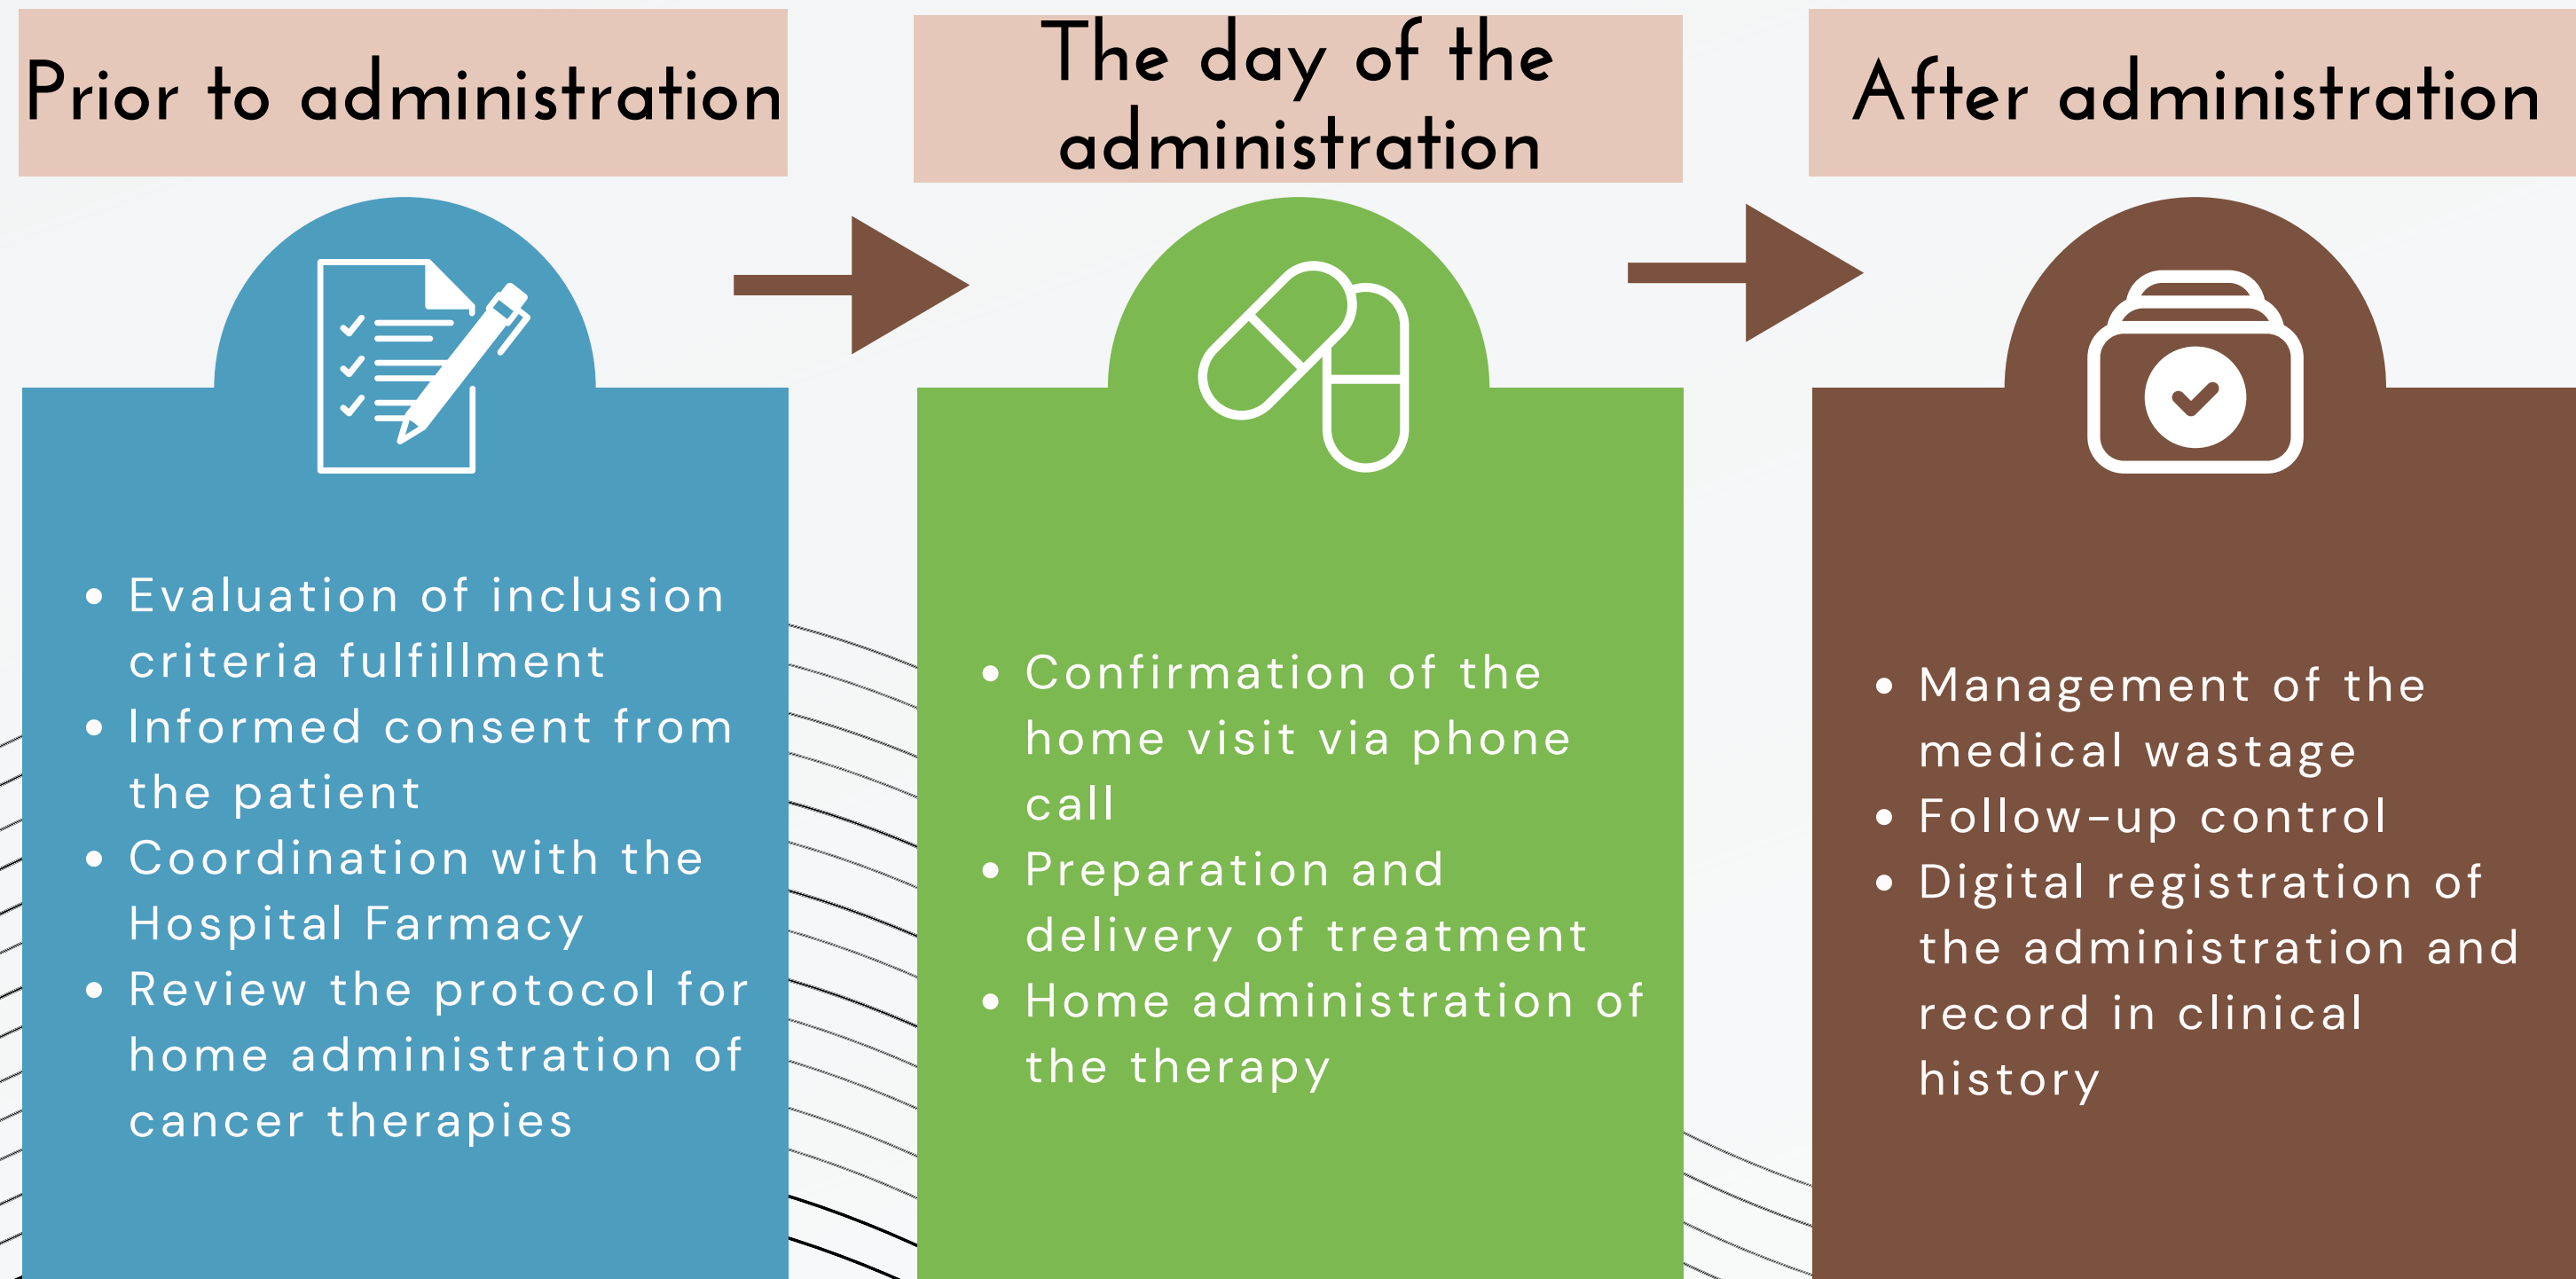

Assesment of the efficiency and budget impact analysis

Two discussion meetings

Development of the consensus document

Final validation

SUMMARIZED LOGISTIC JOURNEY FOR HOME ADMINISTRATION OF CANCER THERAPIES:

BENEFITS DERIVED FROM HOME ADMINISTRATION OF CANCER THERAPIES

IMPROVING THE
QUALITY OF CARE

IMPROVING PATIENT
CONVENIENCE

PATIENT-CENTERED
MEDICINE

REDUCTION OF
HOSPITAL OVERLOAD

